Welcome To Our Hacienda!

Nestled in the rugged, rolling foothills overlooking Northern Mexico's Lake Alazanas, Rancho Caracol is easy to reach, yet impossible to beat when it comes to natural beauty, comfort and hospitality. The beautiful stone patios, intricate tile designs and traditional thatched roofs of our hacienda will give you the ambience of Old Mexico without sacrificing the modern-day luxuries you'd expect from a world-class hunting lodge. The gorgeous swimming pool, patios and rooftop bar offer a welcome retreat after a long day's hunt, and our hot tub will work wonders on the sore shoulders and legs that come with a successful day in the field. Spacious, air-conditioned guest rooms feature private bathrooms, full-sized beds, daily maid service and classic Mexican styling.

The food? Incomparable. You'll dine on a wide variety of traditional cuisine, wild game and a plethora of delicious appetizers, salads and desserts. Fine wine is served with dinner, and the bar – always well-stocked with top shelf liquor – is always open. From breakfast to dinner, our chef and staff will make sure you never go hungry!

Our ultimate goal at Rancho Caracol is to provide you with the very best in service, comfort and style. You'll arrive as our guest, but you'll leave as a member of our family. Please call us today at (888) 246-3164, and let us help you plan the wingshooting experience of a lifetime.

Sincerely,

Dean & Barry Pitegnat
